MUZRAI
D.No. 252

BEFORE THE GOVERNMENT OF HIS HIGHNESS

THE MAHARAJA OF MYSORE.

Muzrai Appeal No. of 1925-26.

Appellant:-

Syed Sha Ali, Muzaver of the Raja Hussain Darga.

The appellant begs to state that the Raja Hussain Darga is a Muzrai Institution at Balepet, Bangalore City. Appellant's father-in-law Syed Khasim was the muzaver of the Darga. He had neither male issues nor uterine brothers. When he died, he left behind him his widow Rahimanbi and two daughters Raboobi and Syed Bi. His widow Rahimanbi succeeded, after his death, to his properties and the Darga. She was managing the Darga affairs with the help of her son-in-law (the appellant). At the time of her death, her daughter (appellant's wife) Syedbi had a son by name Syed Ahmad. The other daughter Raboobi had no children.

Two years before Rahimanbi's death, she (Rahimanbi) executed a registered will in which it is stated that her daughter Syedbi, her husband Syed Sha Ali (Appellant) and their son Syed Ahamad are the only claimants to her properties and the Darga.

After the death of Rahimanbi several persons such as Syed Abdul Khadir, his son Syed Issak and and Syed Khutbudeen put in petitions claiming the muzavership of the Darga and several orders appointing Syed Issak at one time and Syed Kutbudeen at another, as muzavers of the Darga. There was no regular and full enquiry at any time and none of these orders were given effect to. The appellant Syed Shah Ali is in possession of the Darga continuously for over 35 years and is managing its affairs satisfactorily without any complaint.

He has even spent a large amount of his private money for the upkeep of the Darga.

On an application of Syed Kutbudeen, the Muzrai Commissioner has now ordered without enquiry, that the Darga should at once be handed over to Kutbudeen. He has not even considered the conduct of Syed Kutbudeen mentioned in Revenue Secretary's letter of August 1924 and in the statement of several respectable gentlemen of Bangalore City such as Messrs. Oosmankhan and Couse Razvi, Honorable Magistrates, taken by his predecessor Mr.K. Chandy (the present 2nd Member of the Council).

As regards Syed Issak's claim, it has already been decided in G.O.No.1973/Muz.32-13-16 dated 20th August 1921 that his father Syed Abdul Khader was not a uterine and undivided brother of the original hakdar Syed Khasim, moreover this Syed Issak is now dead and he has no heirs.

~~As regards Syed Issak's claim, it has already been decided in G.O.No.1973/Muz.32-13-16 dated 20th~~ according to usage and Mahomedan law, this Syed Kutbudeen who had not yet been born when Rahimanbi died is not the nearest heir to her. Rahimanbi's another daughter's (Syedbi's) son Syed Ahamed was alive when she died. According to the will, the usage and the mahomedan law this Syed Ahamad was the nearest claimant to her properties and Darga after her death. After Syed Ahamad's death, which occurred two years after Rahimanbi's death, his father Syed Sha Ali (the present appellant) is the lawful claimant. Moreover this Syed Kutbudeen is unfit for the post being unable to read 'Puthcha in the Darga as deposed to by several respectable gentle men of the Bangalore City and the Amildar of Chikkanayakanahally. This Syed Kutbudeen being unable to do the services had relinquished the khaji's post in favour of another man and has brought the masjid at Chikkanayakanahally where he was a Khaji into ruins. Recently this Syed Kutbudeen has even sold his right of muzavership in favour of another person which has already come to the notice of Government. He even demanded Rs.700/- from the appellant to keep quiet and there are witnesses to speak to this fact. To the appellant's misfortune the Muzrai Commissioner did not take into consideration any of these facts and has passed orders to give immediate effect to orders appointing Kutbudeen as muzaver of the Darga.

As regards Syed Kutbudeen's claim, according to

The appellant therefore begs that his claims to the office may kindly be considered and he may be ordered to continue as Muzaver.

He also prays that pending final orders the Muzrai Commissioner may kindly be ordered to keep his order in abayance.

The endorsament granted by the Muzrai Commissioner and the copy of the endorsement dated 29th November 1907 granted by the Government are herein enclosed.

BEFORE THE GOVERNMENT OF HIS HIGHNESS THE MAHARAJA OF MYSORE.

Muzrai Review Petition No. of Petitioner:-- Syed Sha Ali Muzaver of the Raja Hussain Darga at Balepet, Bangalore City.

The petitioner humbly begs to represent that his claim to the muzavership of the Raja Hussain Darga at Balepet, Bangalore may be reconsidered and the order passed in G,O. No.378/Muz. 57-25-4 dated 3rd October 1925 may be reviewed on the following among other grounds:--

1. As required in Section 33 of the Muzrai Regulation there was no regular and full enquiry, by any Muzrai Officer at any time to ascertain the claims of several persons since the death of the petitioner's father-in-law, the late Muzaver Syed Khasim. Whenever an application was ~~fixx~~ filed by any one of the parties the other party had no notice of it and thereby he had no opportunity to put forward his claims in full. All the orders hitherto passed were more or less expartee. Similarly the petitioner had no knowledge of the Government Order appointing Syed Kutbudeen as Muzaver till very recently and to apply promptly for the revision of the said order. The petitioner has therefore been holding the sacred office of the Muzaver without interruption, break or disturbance for over 35 years.

As already represented in my previous petition the petitioner's claim to the office are as follows:--

Petitioner's father-in-law Syed Khasim was the Muzaver of the Darga in question. He had neither male issues nor uterine brothers. When he died he left behind him his widow Rahiman Bi and two daughters Rabba Bi and Syeda Bi. After his death his widow Rahiman Bi succeeded to his properties as well as the Darga. She was managing the Darga affairs with the help of her son-in-law (the petitioner). At the time of her death, her daughter, (petitioner's wife) Syeda Bi had a son by name Sye Ahmad. The other daughter Rabba Bi had no children.

Two years before Rahiman Bi's death she executed a Registered Will, in which it is stated that her daughter Syed Bi, her husband Syed Sha Ali (petitioner) and their son Syed Ahamad should be the only ~~xxxx~~ claimants to her properties and the Darga.

The petitioner Syed Sha Ali is thus in possession of the Darga continuously for over 35 years and is managing its affairs satisfactorily without any complaint. He has even spent a large amount of his private money for the up-keep of the Darga.

As regards the capacity of Kutbudeen to the Muzavership, the petitioner begs to state that he is only an instrument in the hands of the petitioner's enemies. He is unfit for the pos being unable to recite even "Fateha" in the Darga. This can be verified by examining him in person. A few persons influenced by the petitioner's enemies have certified his fitness to hold the said office but the petitioner learns that they ~~xxx~~ did not examire Khutbuddin in person. His behaviour in selling his "Khaji hak" at Kandikere in the Chikkanayakanahally Taluk and Muzavership of the Darga in question itself shows that he is unfit for the post. This has already been noticed by the Government (vide Revenue Secretary's letter to to Muzrai Commissioner dated 7th August 1924).

Though the Government had directed the Muzrai Commissioner to enquire whether Syed Kutbudeen was competent to hold the office of the Muzaver, no enquiry was held, and the Muzrai Commissioner did not even take into consideration any of the reports of the local officers both in Bangalore and Tumkur Districts.

The petitioner humbly prays that the order passed in Government Order No. R 378/Muz.57-25-4 dated 3rd October 1925 may kindly be revised and a full and formal enquiry may be ordered to ascertain that the petitioner is the proper claimant to the muzavership.

He further prays that pending final orders in the matter, a stay order may be issued not to give effect to the above said Government Order of 3rd October 1925.

The petitioner is an old man with a number of young children mainly depending upon this Darga.

In case the Government are not inclined to order a formal enquiry the petitioner and Syed Khutbudeen may kindly be ordered to hold the office by turns of one year each for which act of kindness the petitioner will ever pray for your Honour's long life and continued prosperity.

Most Respected Sir,

Your humble memorialist begs to appeal against the order of the 2nd Member of Council in Muzrai Appeal No. 378/Muz.57-25 dated 3rd October 1925 and Muz. Review No. (7) 529/Muz.57-25-6 dated 20th November 1925.

Raja Hussain Darga is a Muzrai institution at Balepet, Bangalore City. One Syed Khasim was the Hakdar Muzaver of the Darga. He had neither male issues nor uterine brothers. He had only two daughters of whom memorialist's wife is one. After the death of Syed Khasim, his wife Rahiman Bi succeeded to his properties as well as the Darga. She was managing the Darga affairs through her son-in-law (memorialist). At the time of her death her daughter Syed Bi (memorialist's wife) had a son by name Syed Ahamed. Whereas the other daughter Raboobi had no issues.

The following is the geneological tree showing the respective claiments:--

Syed Khasim (wife Rahiman Bi)

Syed Bi (husband Syed Sha Ali memorialist).	Raboobi
Syed Ahamed.	Syed Khutbudeen.

Rahiman Bi executed a will (Registered) stating that her daughter Syed Bi, her husband Syed Sha Ali (memorialist) and their son Syed Ahamed should succeed to her properties and the Darga after her death. Syed Bi and Syed Ahamed died long after the death of Rahiman Bi. Another daughter Raboo Bi gave birth to Syed Khutbudeen long after Rahiman Bi's death.

After the death of Rahiman Bi, her daughter Syed Bi and grand son Syed Ahamed were therefore the legal claiments to the Darga. After their death, the memorialist Syed Sha Ali.

Your humble memorialist is managing the Darga affairs continuously for over 35 years without any complaint. He has spent large sums out of his private money for the repairs &c., of the Darga. Subh being the case one Syed Isak put in a petition claiming the muzavership, on the ground that he was the nephew (brother's son) of the late Syed Khasim. Orders were passed without proper enquiry, appointing him as the muzaver. Later on Syed Kutbudeen appealed against this order and claimed the muzavership to himself. Even then there was no proper enquiry, but the former order was cancelled on the ground that Syed Isak's father was not the uterine brother of Syed Khasim and orders were passed appointing Syed Kutbuddeen as the muzaver. This Kutbudeen is illiterate and unfit for the sacred post of muzavership which fact was deposed to by Messrs. Usman Khan (District Board vice President), Gouse Razvi (Moulvi) and several others. This Syed Kutbudeen was the Hakdar Khaji of Kandikere in the Chikkanayakanahalli Taluk. Being unable to do the work he sold his hak to some other per- persons. This fact has been reported by the Amildar of of Chikkanayakanahally Taluk. Besides this Syed Kutbudeen tried to dispose of his hak to the muzavership of the Darga in question, soon after his appointment as such.

As there was no disturbance, the memorialist was not aware ~~of~~ of these orders till very recently when a notice was served upon him to hand over the charge of the Darga to Syed Kutbudeen. The appeal petition and the review application presented by the ~~2nd Member of Council~~ memorialist were to the misfortune of the memorialist, dismissed by the 2nd Member of Council without any enquiry.

Your humble memorialist has now approached your honour and pray that a formal and full enquiry under Section 33 of the Mysore Muzrai Regulation may be kindly ordered. He further prays that pending the said enquiry a stay order may be kindly issued not to give effect to the order appointing Kutbudeen as the Muzaver.
